Student Comments:

- One of the most organized classes I've had, a great job was done in that aspect! The organization made it easier to learn and grasp the material also!
- exam connectivity issues from too much traffic

(Instructor Text/Memo)

Department Question

Thomas Yahl Teaching Assistant

- Was very friendly and easy to ask questions to.
- Sent out help sheets for the coding lab
- He would help guide us through the lab assignments during class and also held recitations that included problems that were much more complicated than what would have been on the exam.
- He was funny, patient, explained things well, very willing to do his job.
- He was friendly towards everyone as well as super easy to get in touch with outside of the lab/recitation times.
- He was good at explaining information
- Thomas Yahl always had an adaptable lesson plan; he could handle students' questions but didn't rely on them
- He provided examples of topics we had already gone through during lecture hours
- Very structured recitations and labs. Made sure to explain concepts in lab well, and tackled difficult problems in recitation.
- Give consistent reviews
- He released help files before the labs so that we wouldn't go into them blind, and his exam reviews were were a good summary of what would be on the exams.
- He sent help files for each of the labs that were very useful
- He gave us a bunch of examples for each concept which were also similar to the ones we see on the homework.
- Provided review session
- He would explain the question and not give the answer right away
